

Heightened Phishing Attempts

Please be alert for current scams consisting of calls to debit card holders informing cardholders their debit card has been deactivated and needs to be reactivated. The cardholder is then asked to provide key account information such as account numbers and expiration dates in order to re-activate the affected debit card. This type of fraudulent activity increases during the holiday season.

If you receive such a call, immediately contact your bank representative or the Debit Card Hot Line.

Debit Card Hot Line (800) 448-8268

Northwest Bank Customer Service (888) 906-5634